

GRANAT-Courses: Fee Information for 2024

- For doctoral students of the Faculty of Natural Sciences, participation in GRANAT events is usually free of charge; if applicable, participation fees will be charged according to the table (below):
 - For individual doctoral candidates, the fees are usually covered by the institutes; in exceptional cases, however, it is possible for doctoral candidates to pay themselves (e.g. 40.00 € per person and course for members of the Faculty of Natural Sciences).
 - For doctoral students in DFG Research Training Groups / Graduate Schools or in the Cluster of Excellence PhoenixD, the fees incurred should be paid from the programme budget.
- For postdocs, lecturers and participants from outside the faculty as well as for participants of the Hannover Medical School (MHH), the GRANAT events are generally subject to fees (see table).
- The course fees serve exclusively to finance GRANAT courses. Drinks and catering are not included.
